NATURAL ORDER

Sept. 18, 2003 Edition

"Don't go around saying the world owes you a living. The world owes you nothing. It was here first." [Mark Twain]

Natural law is a product of the following natural order and hierarchy. We explain Natural Law in section 3.4 or The Great IRS Hoax: Why We Don't Owe Income Tax (http://famguardian.org/Publications/GreatIRSHoax/GreatIRSHoax.htm). Natural Order explains the hierarchy of sovereignty within the universe and it is entirely consistent with the order that things were created by God Himself. This hierarchy of sovereignty is unchangeable and immutable and cannot be denied, denounced, or legislated away by any court or government. All human beings instinctively understand its meaning and application. Below is a diagram of Natural Order

Julliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884): "There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the government of the United States .... In this country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld."

Hale v. Henkel, 240 U.S. 43 (1906): "His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights ."

Perry v. U.S. 394 U.S. 330 (1935): "In United States, sovereignty resides in people... the Congress cannot invoke the sovereign power of the People to override their will as thus declared.",

Yik Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886): "Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law...While sovereign powers are delegated to ... the government, sovereignty itself remains with the people.."
